Experience

Conceptor/Strategist at Design Is Dead (Antwerp, Belgium)

May 2010 - Present

For my internship for Hyper Island, I developed concepts and strategies for Design Is Dead's clients. They hired me afterwards, thus making concepting my current job.

Flash and Flex developer at One Agency (Ghent, Belgium)

April 2009 - June 2009

During my last year at University College Arteveldehogeschool, I worked as an intern at One Agency in Ghent. I collaborated on Flash and Flex projects for advertising companies.

Web designer at Today (Leuven, Belgium)

December 2007 - April 2009

Today is a small design agency located in Leuven. I was a member of their small web-team. We developed numerous Drupal-sites for their clients.

Graphic Designer at Studio 100 (Londerzeel, Belgium)

August 2007 - September 2007

Studio 100 is one the largest providers of family and child entertainment in Belgium. I worked there as a graphic designer, creating designs for billboards, DVD boxes, magazine advertisements, ...

XML Developer at These Days (Antwerp, Belgium)

August 2006 - September 2006

These Days is part of the Wunderman network with offices in Antwerp and Amsterdam. I've worked there as a developer, providing data structures for their online campaigns.
